QUARTERLY MEETING

The regular quarterly meeting of the Chilton County Historical Society will be held on Sunday, 14 April 1991, at 2:00 p.m. at the Chilton/Clanton Public Library. The program for this meeting will be on the "Death of James Holt Clanton".

QUIREIES

MARTIN, PEARSON, MCGEE. In the early 1800's there was a close knit neighborhood of these families in the area of Perry, Bibb, Dallas and what later became Chilton counties. They had migrated from Columbia (Augusta) and Warren counties of Georgia and were closely associated with the Lazembys, Greens, Stanfords, Jones, McGlanarys and Philips. Col. Victor E. Clark, Jr., 14262 Southern Pines Drive, Dallas, Tex., 75234 would like to exchange with anyone searching these lines.

RIGGINS. Each year the descendants of Littleton and Mary Riggins, early settlers of Mulberry Creek, hold a reunion in the spring. Can you imagine the surprise of having Littleton Riggins' appear at last year's reunion. Seventh generation descendant of our patriarch, Littleton Riggins is shown in the accompanying photo with his father, Kent Riggins, of Pensacola, Fla. For more information on the Riggins Reunion or a booklet listing more than 1800 descendants of Littleton Riggins, contact Lisa Powers at 205+822-9118 or Jeane Littleton at 205+823-0119.

Family Searching

The Chilton/Clanton Public Library recently acquired microfilm copies of the marriage and estate records for Shelby County. This now makes available at a single location the records for Shelby, Bibb, Autauga and Chilton counties. Members will be able to search family histories for the entire area back to the formation of each of the counties mentioned.

OBITUARY INDEX STATUS

The local newspaper obituary index which has been appearing in this newsletter covers the period from the earliest newspapers found up to the year 1900. Serialized installments have been published for that decade in alphabetical order. This issue will bring the listing through the letter "Sm" and will represent about 90 percent of the listing for that decade. When all listings for that period are completed the 1900-1910 era will then be published, likewise in alphabetical order. Henceforth, a percent status for the decade being published will be appended to the listing, so that members will know the progress to date. The current listing follows on succeeding pages.

COUNTY HISTORY CONTINUED. . .

The remainder of the county history which was published in the Chilton County News of May 31, 1928 is included and concluded herewith.

The act of establishment named Reuben Powell, Anderson Baker William Vines, E. Ward and John Pernel as commissioners to hold an election, locate a county seat, build a court house and jail, and levy a tax to pay for these evidences of civilization and government. The first county seat of Chilton County was at Grantville, about four miles east of the present court house at Clanton. The old building was made of logs. It had but one room, about 16 x 20 feet. There must have been a jail, also, though no mention is made of such in any of the records so far discovered. The county's first officers were Mordecai Roberson, probate judge, and Thomas H. Williams, sheriff. Both were commissioned in 1869.

The town of Clanton was laid out in 1872 and was named for the Confederate General James Holt Clanton, a native of Georgia and long a prominent figure in political life of Alabama. A more imposing courthouse was built of lumber at the new county seat and served its purpose until it was burned in 1919. The South and North railroad which later became the Louisville and Nashville, reached the point where Clanton now stands in 1870, and later connected Montgomery and Birmingham. Clanton and Birmingham are practically the same age.

The Southern Railway crosses the western part of the county, giving transportation to the markets of Birmingham and Selma. A branch of the Mobile & Ohio railroad crosses the Southern at Maplesville.

The pure air and a moderate summer climate is due in part to the high elevation of the greater part of Chilton county. North of Clanton about 6 1/2 miles, is an elevation arising about 830 feet above sea level, known as Jemison Mountain. Near that point is said to be the highest elevation of the L. & N. railroad south of the Tennessee river. The county is shown by Government survey to have an average elevation of about 500 feet.

Lock 12, on the Coosa river about 12 miles from Clanton, was one of the first of the giant hydro-electrical power plants completed in Alabama by the Alabama Power Company. Some years later Mitchell dam was completed further south. The Power company is by far the largest tax payer in the county by reason of these plants and other improvements and a good part of the prosperity and development of the county within recent years is due to expenditures made for constuction and other purposes by the big corporation.

Strawberries, poultry raising and diversified farming have also contributed to improve the income and general prosperity of this section, though cotton remains the chief money crop. The county produced and shipped about 20,000 bales of the staple in 1926 and almost as many with a shorter crop the following year. Indications are favorable to a large acreage in cotton for the present year. The strawberry crop was valued at $58,000 for the year 1926. Shipments start annually about one week later from Castleberry, and the berries are of fine flavor, color, and shipping qualities. There are numerous large poultry farms in the county and this industry is growing rapidly both in volume and in the quality of birds produced. The wealth annually produced from this source would be difficult to calculate, but it is sufficient to form an important item of local prosperity and the money from the industry is widely distributed."

QUARTERLY MEETING

The regular July meeting of the Chilton County Historical Society will be held at the Chilton/Clanton Public Library at 2:00 pm on Sunday, the 14th of June, 1991. The Conference Room will be the site for the gathering and the program will be a rerun of the last meeting. The Death of James Holt Clanton will once again be presented by Benjamin D. Roberts.

LAST MEETING

At the April meeting a project was approved to raise funds to help retire the debt still due for the printing of Cemeteries of Chilton. Mrs. Marion Mims was appointed chairman of a committee to conduct a yard sale with proceeds for the Society. Many items were donated by members and non-members alike and the sale was held during the second Saturday in May. The Society is beholden to all who donated or participated and to Chairman Marion Mims for the resulting deposit amounting to $372.00.

Another fund-raiser was conceived and implemented shortly thereafter. Nell Thomas, Mary Richardson and Ben Roberts parceled out the details to arrange for a raffle to be held in June. Member Sally J. Roberts donated a tatted collar; Edwards Jewelry, a ladies wrist watch; Pinedale Gardens, a dozen red roses; First Federal Savings and Loan a $50.00 savings certificate; finally, Bennett's donated a $10.00 gift certificate.

The donations were then ticketed (with the printing donated by member Tommy Patterson of Mail Specialists) for a raffle and the drawing was held after the Auction at this year's Chilton County Peach Festival. All winners were notified immediately and the prizes have now been awarded to them. We are indebted to the businesses and individuals providing the prizes which yielded a total of $400.00 for the Society and to all those who supported the effort by purchasing tickets or making donations.

SOCIETY'S LOSS

On the back page you will notice a blank spot where Mary Richardson's name usually appeared. Mary Lamont Richardson was fatally stricken in the course of her normal duties at E.L. Klinner Furniture Company on June 5th, 1991. It was intended, originally, to include in this issue a special tribute to her. To allow more time for assembly of necessary information, it was concluded that the October issue would be a more appropriate way to memorialize her considerable contribution to the Chilton County Historical Society and Archives. We all miss her tremendously.

DUES CHANGE

The membership voted some time ago to increase dues to help defray the costs of printing, labeling and increased postage for the Newsletter. Please note the changes reflected on page four of this issue and incorporate them in your budget for the coming year.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The third quarterly meeting of the Chilton County Historical Society will be held at the Chilton/Clanton Public Library on October 13th, 1991. The program will be one of total surprise and the meeting will start at 2:00 pm, precisely.

LAST MEETING

By Marian Mims

The July meeting of the Chilton County Historical Society was held at Shoney's Restaurant in Clanton. After the regular business meeting a special program on Camp Watts, Alabama was given by Ben Roberts. We were introduced to the existence of the Camp Watts Association promoting recognition and commemoration of the men and women that served and/or died at Camp Watts. The installation was a Confederate Camp of Instruction and Conscription located just outside of Notasulga, Ala. during the Civil War. The Camp was burned to the ground by Union troops under Gen. Rousseau (except for the hospital) in 1864. The Association is attempting to have the site placed on the State and National Historical Registers. We were assured that there would be updates forthcoming.

CEMETERIES OF CHILTON

Being mailed with this issue of the Newsletter is a listing of burials at New Mars Hill which dropped by the wayside when this census was published. The pages have been numbered in keeping with their originally intended sequencing and sized to fit easily into place. Naturally these names are also omitted from the index. An update of the index is not being provided due to the inordinate amount of effort and cost involved. This missing information is being provided to all owners of the book at no cost to them; we extend our sincere apology for the unfortunate mishap and hope that the additional listing will make up for the oversight. While we regret such an incident we are extremely happy that we were able to find it. A number of unmarked burials have been identified recently and it is contemplated that a supplement, with a corrected index, could be published in the not too distant future. The unmarked burials found thus far are surfacing from the obituary index currently being provided in this publication, for the most part.

MARY LAMONT RICHARDSON

Born February 2, 1937

Died June 5, 1991

Included in this issue is the tribute to Mary which was mentioned in the last Newsletter. A microfilm cabinet was ordered with plaques to honor her and is currently in place at the Library. The purchase of the cabinet was made possible by the donations of several of Mary's friends, the Chilton County Chamber of Commerce and the Historical Society. Members are invited to inspect it at their earliest opportunity. The current directory of the Chilton County Chamber of Commerce will be dedicated to Mrs. Richardson when published in the next few days.

OBITUARY INDEX STATUS

Work continues on the Chilton County newspaper obituary index by Betty Collins. The status of that part of it which has been published to date is as indicated below.
